PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release-Fall River, Massachusetts.

January 23rd, 2018

Police Spokesman- Detective John Robinson

On January 16th, 2018 at approximately 3:00 p.m. Officer Eric Copsetta of the Fall River Police Departments Special Operations Division (SOD) received a tip that a wanted fugitive from the FRPD 'Top Ten Most Wanted' (Jeffrey Louis age 36) could be found in a house on Lindsey Street. Armed with this information Officer Copsetta along with officers Matthew Mendes, Richard Saraiva, Rory McCoomb, Frank Andrade, Zachary Dupere, and Trooper Barry Shea of the Massachusetts State Police VFAS unit responded to the Lindsey Street apartment.

With the building surrounded, entry was gained by knocking on the door. A female answered. Upon being informed of the purpose of their presence, the female pointed out the middle bedroom and allowed Officers Copsetta, Saraiva, and Mendes in. The middle bedroom was entered and Jeffrey Louis was located in bed sleeping. Located in the room with Jeffrey Louis were 36 grams of Fentanyl, 16 Suboxone pills, 8 blue glassine baggies of Heroin, 1 knotted baggie of heroin (over .5 grams in all), 25 Clonazepam pills, 6 Xanax pills, 25 Quetiapine pills, 8 Alprazolam pills and numerous other pills including Clonidine, Oxcarbazepine, Promethazine, Sublingual, and Diazepam.

Jeffrey Louis was taken into custody without incident.

On January 18th, 2018 at approximately 7:00 a.m. Special Operations Division Officers Richard Saraiva, John Ruggiero, and Sergeant Daniel Ahaesy responded to a 3rd floor South Street apartment where they located Thomas John Grinvalski Jr. Age 40, who is also on the FRPD 'Top Ten Most Wanted' list.

Thomas John Grinvalski Jr. was taken into custody without incident.
