PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Pine Street Shots Fired

DATE: June 11th, 2018

On Monday, June 11th, 2018 at approximately 10:30 pm Uniformed Officers of the Fall River Police Department responded to the 100 block of Pine Street in response to a ‘Shots fired’ call. On arrival, witnesses informed Officer Brendan McNerney that they heard ‘between 6 to 12 rounds’ being fired off.

A canvass of the area was performed and an unoccupied Chevy Van was located with several bullet holes in the windshield. The Fall River Police Departments Major Crimes Divisions’ Crime Scene Unit was dispatched to collect evidence.

At this time the incident is still under investigation. Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Lawrence Ferreira of the Fall River Police Departments’ Major Crimes Division at 508-324-2796 or leave information anonymously on the TIPS line at 508-672-TIPS(8477).
